

Fair Trials - NOT - Foreign Torture TRIALS NOT TORTURE

Deporting Psychiatric Patients To Torture

In the wake of the London bombings, Tony Blair has ordered the arrest and deportation of ten Muslim men—including a double amputee taken from a psychiatric ward (Times, 12 August, p. 6). They face deportation to torture states.

Put Them On Trial—Or Release Them

If there is evidence that these men have been involved in terrorism, we should put them on trial. If guilty of crimes on British soil, they should be punished by British law.

Instead the government is refusing to charge them with any crime at all, admitting that the “evidence” against them would not stand up in court.

8 Out Of 9 Found Not Guilty

In the recent “ricin” case, of the nine men charged with conspiracy, four men were found not guilty of all charges, and the prosecution dropped charges against another four.

8 out of 9 men turned out to be innocent of terrorism when the government’s suspicions were tested in court.

Deported To Torture

Instead of putting the 10 suspects on trial here, Mr Blair wants to put them at risk of torture and possible death in repressive states like Algeria and Jordan, even though they have not been found guilty of any crime.

Stop The Deportations

Please write to Charles Clarke, Home Secretary, Home Office 2 Marsham Street, London SW1P 4DF asking for trials not torture.
