TRIALS NOT TORTURE

Charles Clarke, Home Secretary: You have arrested several Muslims, including one double amputee taken from a psychiatric ward, proposing to send them to countries which practice torture.

You have not charged them with any crime or produced any evidence against them.

We, the undersigned, believe that if there is any evidence that these men have been involved in terrorism here in Britain, they should be charged and put on trial here in Britain.

Labelling them 'terrorists' and deporting them to states such as Algeria is torture by remote control. Promises of fair treatment by torture states are not worth the paper they are written on.

In the recent 'ricin' case, of the 9 suspected terrorists, 4 were found not guilty of all charges, and the prosecution dropped charges against another 4. That is 8 out of 9 "terrorists".

British justice must mean not using torture. We call for TRIALS NOT TORTURE.
