NONVIOLENCE GUIDELINES

People involved in organising these events agreed on the following nonviolence guidelines, which we hope you will agree with and adhere to:

This is an opportunity for nonviolent action. While taking part, please make a commitment to:

- respect the humanity of all the people you encounter
- try to be nonviolent to all living creatures in your actions, manner and words
- maximise your capacity to be responsible for your own actions
- carry the tools of nonviolence and not the weapons of violence

Specifically: NO threats/violence (including pushing), verbal abuse, drugs, (including alcohol), or national flags.
