ARROW

The Pledge was initiated by ARROW (Active Resistance to the Roots of War). ARROW is a nonviolent direct action affinity group, set up in September 1990 to oppose the coming Gulf War.

ARROW has held a vigil for the lifting of economic sanctions against Iraq outside the Foreign Office (corner of Whitehall and King Charles St) every Monday evening (5.30pm-7pm) since July 1990.

PLEDGE OF RESISTANCE

Tony Blair seems determined to follow President Bush into a criminal war against Iraq, even though 56% of people in Britain oppose this war (MORI poll, 1/4/02).

By publicly committing ourselves to nonviolent civil disobedience, we can help to limit and perhaps prevent a disaster for the people of Iraq.

In the 1980s a US Pledge of Resistance mobilised thousands of people to take part in civil disobedience, and helped to stop President Reagan invading Central America.

Please join the network of resistance.

Please ask others to sign or sponsor the Pledge.

Sponsored by ARROW (Active Resistance to the Roots of War), London Region CND, Scottish Coalition for Justice Not War, and voices in the wilderness uk
